Actual situation, Potential, Development on the corridor Asia – Europe

April 2015
UTLC opens a chance to combine all routes between Asia and Europe to an efficient railway system.
OVERVIEW OF TRANSIT SERVICE AREAS

Belgium, Denmark, Netherlands, Romania

- Core areas: Poland, Slovakia, Germany

- Areas in development: Czech republic, Sweden, Austria, Italy, Switzerland,

- Emerging areas: France, Finland, United Kingdom, Spain

- Stagnating areas: Hungary, Slovenia, Croatia, Serbia, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Bulgaria

- Potential new areas: Turkey & other south-east European countries
FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF DIFFERENT AREAS, DEPENDS ON:

SERVICE

- stable frequency
- transit time in competitive range of 13 days (e.g. Suzhou - Warszawa)
- reasonable total rate compared to the sea freight and air freight

PRECONDITIONS

- European railway infrastructure must improve west-east connection
- Improve transit time for railing in Europe
- Main terminals in Europe in strategic locations, to reduce the pre- & on-carriage distance to <300 Km
VOLUME

VOLUME Development

250,000 TEU in 2018

Different types of trains in one system
- Dedicated block trains
- Project/product trains (e.g. Suzhou-Warszawa)
- Network trains (consolidation on the border)
Cargo

European cargo
Automotive, machinery, tires, paper, electro parts, LCL

Asian cargo
Electronics & high tech, displays, fashion, machinery, refractory material, e-com, LCL
2015
Reduction of the transit-time to 11 days from Suzhou – Warszawa
  - Implement CIM/SMGS railway bill
  - Reduction of time for border crossing between wide and normal gouge

2016 / 17
Reduction of the transit-time to 10 days and less
SERVICE
- Turkey-Asia railway system via Kazakhstan
- Transit time 14-15 days
- Weekly departure in both direction
- Further connection to neighbour countries

DEVELOPMENT OF NEW POTENTIAL AREAS, DEPENDS ON:
- Enter in most important/strategic departure cities
- Build up a direct railway connection to/from main industry areas in China
- Use all main gates from/to China in order to generate a flexible service & an efficient repositioning system
- Clearly defined sales activities such as clients work shops, networking......
THANK YOU
FOR YOUR ATTENTION

...join with us the future...